I am writing to apply for the position of _____. After receiving the information which you are looking for a Cloud Engineer Trainee for your company, I'm interested with your company, so I would like to apply for the position of a _____.

Best on my school projects such as Virtual Company I, Virtual Company II and Virtual Company III, I get a lot of experience working as a team leader and find techniques to reach the good result of those projects. I could apply my soft skills such as task management, problem solving, note-taking, time management, critical thinking, responsibility, and communication on those projects. As for hard skills, I could apply some languages such as Microsoft Office (word, excel, PowerPoint), Linux, Cisco, Operation System, Computer Architecture, Network Infrastructure Virtualization and Cloud Computing.

In addition to school projects, I have attended many workshops such as leadership, understanding of new technologies / careers. Etc. These workshops lead me to be a stronger person.
